Scenic Scandinavia including Finland, Sweden and Norway

Day 1 Canada to Finland

Day 2 Helsinki –After arriving clear immigration relax in your hotel in Helsinki.

Day 3 Sightseeing tour of Helsinki

Sprawling atop a peninsula and spilling out over 315 islands, the port city of Helsinki is Finland's gift to the world. Dive into the history and culture of the country's capital on a guided tour of its highlights. Beautiful Capital city of Finland, city located on tip of Peninsula. On arrival enjoy orientation tour of Helsinki. City orientation tour includes Modern Finlandia Hall, City Hall, Parliament House, the Presidential Palace, the monumental railroad station, the great Lutheran Cathedral, Olympic Stadium and Sibelius monument. Also visit the Unique Church in the Rock and Market Square - which is bustling with activities with vendors selling fresh food and souvenirs. Over night in Helsinki

Day 4 Helsinki

After breakfast we go to Suomenlinna. Guarding the maritime approach to the city, the Gibraltar of the North is an 18th-century island fortress, built by the Swedish to defend against Russian encroachment. Nowadays, it's honored as a UNESCO World Heritage Site— and locals regularly visit for scenic picnics

Day 5 Overnight Cruise night Cruise to Stockholm

Join your travelers for an included dinner, then retire for the evening.

Day 6 Stockholm

After Cruise we go to Drottningholm Palace, an opulent residence whose grounds encompass gardens, a theater, and more. Otherwise, ease into your day—maybe with a walk down the cherry blossom-lined paths of the Kungstradgarden Overnight in Stockholm.

Day 7 Sightseeing tour of Stockholm

Stockholm, Sweden's island-bound capital, is a sophisticated place, one that embraces modernity just as much as its Viking heritage. Enjoy a guided tour and let a local expert introduce you to their hometown.
Enter Stockholm's City Hall, built in an offshoot of the art nouveau style using some 8 million bricks. Other than its unique aesthetic, its main draw is its status: The building has hosted the Nobel Prize banquet almost every year since 1930.
Visit the Vasa Museum—Scandinavia's most popular exhibition—and see its namesake attraction: a 64-gun, 17th-century warship that was hauled off the floor of Stockholm's harbor in 1961.

Stroll across the island of Gamla Stan, Stockholm's Old Town, and stop to view the Baroque exterior of the Royal Palace.
Round out your afternoon with a trip to Uppsala, the academic and religious heart of Sweden. Evening Flight to Copenhagen

Day 8 : Sightseeing tour of Copenhagen

After breakfast then set out on a guided tour of this Danish delight.
Step inside the 16th-century Rosenborg Castle, a royal residence built in the Dutch Renaissance style.
View the iconic Little Mermaid statue, commemorating one of Danish writer Hans Christian Andersen's most famous fairy tales, and marvel at the wharfside homes and stores of the beautifully preserved Nyhavn district.
Pass by a pair of palaces: the rococo Amalienborg, official home of the Danish royal family, and the neo-baroque Christiansborg, site of the national parliament.
Continue stretching your legs during a free afternoon with a walk through Sondermarken. On the surface, this green space is your typical European park; below ground, though, you'll find the Cisternerne, a reservoir-turned-art exhibit that serves as an extension of the nearby Frederiksberg Museums.

Day 9 Copenhagen

For a fairytale day with an extra dash of whimsy, add our optional outing to lakeside Frederiksborg Castle and the waterfront city of Elsinore. Or, hang back in Copenhagen for some self-guided exploration. The Kastellet, a star-shaped fortress standing sentinel over the Oresund strait, lies a half-hour's walk from Rosenborg Castle.

Day 9 Overnight Cruise Copenhagen to Oslo

Day 10 Sightseeing tour of Oslo

Ready for more of Oslo, Follow up yesterday's outing with a sightseeing tour and let a local guide properly introduce you to the vibrant Norwegian capital—a Viking outpost turned global city stood in the bowl of the Oslofjord for close to 1,000 years.
Step inside Oslo City Hall. Besides the day-to-day meetings of the city council, this red brick building also hosts the annual Nobel Peace Prize ceremony and is decorated with murals depicting the award.
Enter the National Gallery, Norway's prominent art museum, to view its most famous exhibition: Edvard Munch's 1893 painting, The Scream.

Stroll among more than 200 bronze, granite, and cast-iron sculptures in Vigeland Park. Set within the 110-acre expanse of Frogner Park—Oslo's largest green space—this open-air exhibition showcases the works of Norwegian artist Gustav Vigeland. Check out the Mathallen.

Day 11 Fram Museum

After Breakfast, step inside the Fram Museum to learn about Norway's storied tradition of polar exploration through interactive exhibits and other displays. One can't-miss highlight: the Gjoa, the sailboat used by pioneering Arctic explorer Roald Amundsen to complete the first successful transit of the Northwest Passage.
Overnight and Dinner

Day 12 Flight to Bergen

Fly to Bergen, Norway, this morning. Tonight, sit down for an included dinner.

Day 13 Sightseeing tour of Bergen

Join a local guide and discover the historic sites in and around Bergen, Norway's second city and a settlement that was first founded in 1070.
Drive to the borough of Fana and enter the wooden, medieval-style Fantoft Stave Church—a reconstruction of the original that was first built in the mid-12th century.
Pass by the 13th-century Bergenhus Fortress—one of the best-preserved stone strongholds in all of Norway—and the bustling, bayside market, where merchants have plied their trades since the 1200s.
Walk through Hanseatic-era alleyways and courtyards—and past one of the most famous photo ops in Bergen—the UNESCO-listed Bryggen harbor district, where a series of colorful buildings line the shores of Vågen bay.
Transfer back to your hotel for some rest and relaxation.

Day 14 Norwegian fjords

Even from afar, the fjords that cradle Bergen are a staggering sight. Today, feel the full power of these cliff-lined inlets up close as you venture beyond the city.
Climb onto a train bound for Voss and savor a scenic ride through Norway's otherworldly fjord country before transferring to the sleepy village of Gudvangen.
Board a boat and watch in awe as you cruise through the Nærøfjord, a UNESCO World Heritage Site that boasts the 1,640-foot-tall waterfall, Sagfossen. After, you'll sail into the equally impressive Aurlandsfjord, where you'll disembark.
Leave your ship in tiny Flåm, a picturesque settlement of just 350 people that overlooks the dramatic Aurlandsfjord and traces its roots back to the 1300s.
Ride the rails through the Sognefjord—Norway's longest and deepest fjord—before disembarking in Myrdal and transferring to a train that'll take you back to Bergen.
